Qualitative data collected from the survey:

“Each time I have had a concern about my child, it has been dealt with in a professional manner.”

“We’ve had a tough time lately and staff have been fantastic and I don’t know what I would’ve done without their help and support.”

“Wonderful staff and teachers who care.”

“I’ve recommended Hilton to my friend and her daughter starts nursery in September.”

“This year my daughter has become more socially active, knows more about current affairs and lot more confident too.”

“The random acts of kindness were amazing. Absolutely love that the school helps parents instil this into children!”

“My daughter comes out of school telling us all of the new things that she has learnt every day.”

“My child has excelled since starting at Hilton!”

“Hilton saved us – so myself and my children feel very, very safe.”

“Friendly staff and the children are all friendly and kind too!”

“A wonderful school with innovative ideas to aid learning.”

“My children always come out of school happy and excited. Full of conversation about what they have been learning that day!”

“My children love to be at school. At the weekend they can’t wait for it to be Monday again so that they can go to school and have new adventures and an exciting week. It’s all been a great feeling for me. I have been thinking of changing school many times because we have travel issues, but my kids’ love and enthusiasm towards Hilton always stops me making that decision.”
